

VFW Announces 2014-15 National Youth Scholarship Contest Winners

Students honored during 2015 VFW Legislative Conference

Mar 03, 2015

KANSAS CITY, Mo. - The winners of the VFW and Ladies Auxiliary-sponsored Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen essay competitions were announced yesterday during the 2015 VFW Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C.

Celebrating its 68th year, the Voice of Democracy program helps encourage a better understanding and appreciation for our great country by requiring entrants to write and record a three- to five-minute script on a patriotic theme. This year's theme was "Why Veterans are Important to our Nation's History and Future." The first-place winner, Adam Densmore, sponsored by VFW Post 3631 and Ladies Auxiliary in Aurora, Colo., received an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., where he was presented with the T.C. Selman Memorial Scholarship Award in the amount of $30,000. The second-place winner, Jaycie Schenone, sponsored by VFW Post 6604 and Ladies Auxiliary in Folsom, Calif., received the $16,000 Charles Kuralt Memorial Scholarship Award. The third-place winner, Mackenzie
