

Businesses Nationwide to Thank Veterans for their Service

Veterans are encouraged to take advantage of big discounts this Veterans Day

Nov 04, 2010

Veterans Day provides businesses across the country a great opportunity to thank all veterans for their service and sacrifice. The list below depicts some of the most popular national discounts to be offered on or around this November 11. Please remember, valid proof of service is required to take advantage of the following offers:

Applebee's – veterans and active duty personnel can receive a free meal on Veterans Day, Thursday, Nov. 11, 2010. Last year, Applebee's served more than one million military men and women and expects that number to be even higher this year.

Uno Chicago Grill – invites all veterans and active duty military to stop in for a free entrée or individual pizza on Veteran's Day.

Golden Corral – “Thank You” Dinner, Monday, November 15, 2010. Any person who has ever served the U.S. Military is invited to enjoy a free meal.

McCormick & Schmick's – on Sunday, November 7, 2010 veterans and active duty service members can choose a complimentary entrée from a special menu. Reservations strongly encouraged.

Outback Steakhouse – veterans and active duty receive a free Bloomin' Onion and Beverage (one non-alcoholic drink), November 11, 2010.

Subway – many subway locations offer a free six inch sub to military veterans on Veteran's Day. However, Subway restaurants are franchises, so this offer may only be available in select locations. Please contact your local Subway for more information regarding Veteran's day specials.

The Home Depot - all active duty personnel, reservists, retired military, veterans and
