

VFW Partners with Ricky Lee in Latest Troop Support Effort

Your purchase helps support morale boosting events for US service members worldwide

Jan 25, 2011

KANSAS CITY, Mo. — The VFW is pleased to announce it has teamed up with country artist Ricky Lee to benefit soldiers through its Military Assistance Program (MAP). Lee will donate five dollars from each purchase through the VFW Store of his newest album, Freedom, directly to MAP.

Lee's, Freedom features patriotic songs like, "American Hero," and "100% American." He describes his latest CD as, "songs of real stories and inspirations of the heroes whom I have met throughout the years. It's in honor to all that have served this great country and to their families."
