

'Commander George Lisicki Veterans Apartments' to open on October 27th

'Our Veterans love America and America needs to love her Veterans.'

Oct 24, 2011

[Carteret] Mayor Dan Reiman will be joined by the Borough Council, residents, and military veterans on October 27th for a Ribbon Cutting ceremony, formally unveiling "The Commander George Lisicki Veterans Apartments," Carteret's first veterans' apartment building. The project has been dedicated in honor of past National Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Commander George Lisicki, an advocate of a number of nationwide programs and services.

The ceremony will begin at 3:00 p.m. on site, at 22-24 Washington Avenue.

VFW Past National Commander-in-Chief George Lisicki said, "Affordable housing for Veterans is a first in our area. Our Veterans are asked to make sacrifices only to come home to low paying jobs or no jobs at all. I am proud that the leadership of the Community of Carteret has stepped up to help ease the burden placed on our returning Veterans by offering them affordable housing. Our Veterans love America and America needs to love her Veterans."

Last year, Mayor Reiman and Finance Chair Jorge Diaz announced that Carteret had been awarded $352,000 in federal HOME funding by the Middlesex County Public Housing Agency's Office of Housing and Community Development, for the construction of the building. The development project is being overseen by the Carteret Housing and Development Corporation (CHADCO), a Borough 501c3 non-profit corporation, calling for the construction of Carteret's first veterans' housing complex.

The project will represent another stage in the Reiman administration's continuing efforts to revitalize the Washington Avenue Redevelopment Area. The structure will house four 2-bedroom units, each ADA adaptable, including one that will also feature an exterior wheelchair lift.

The project has received particular recognition in Carteret for meeting specific needs in the areas of affordable housing for veterans, and the integration of green technology. Plans have called for the inclusion of 5 solar panel arrays that will provide 1.5 KW of power, or roughly 70-80% of electric use, to each apartment, along with two 80-gallon solar powered hot water systems.

A $446,827.00 construction contract has been awarded to Shore Green Energy of Northfield, New Jersey. $352,000 in funding has been allocated through the HOME federal Partnership Middlesex County Housing & Community Development, with federal RCA funding earmarked for the balance.

Mayor Reiman said, “We’ve been taking advantage of a number of county and federal initiatives that have allowed us to make provisions wherever possible for green technological enhancements – retrofits that make sound financial sense and which have a positive impact on the environment. There are many benefits to our Veterans’ Housing project, not the least of which will be the implementation of state-of-the-art, energy conserving measures.”

Mayor Reiman added. “It has been a priority of this administration to ease some of the pressure experienced by residents vulnerable to the rising cost of living in urban New Jersey, and to ensure that our returning heroes, our veterans who may be making a transition from service, are not left without practical housing options. We’ve been privileged to have Commander Lisicki as a resident, community leader, and advocate for veterans. There could be no better namesake than one of Carteret’s own residents who has given so much to our nation and our veterans.”
