Jan 31, 2013

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Foundation is pleased to announce it will award a $25,000 grant to the Michael G. Reagan Portrait Foundation on Feb. 8 at 12:30 p.m. VFW Department of Washington Commander Krist Huseby will officiate a formal check presentation from the VFW Foundation to Michael Reagan in an open-to-the-public ceremony at the Snohomish County Senior Center in Edmonds, Wash.

Reagan is an internationally-recognized artist who over the last three decades has been commissioned to draw portraits of numerous celebrities, professional athletes, U.S. presidents and other heads of state. For the last several years Reagan has volunteered his talents and dedicated his life to drawing portraits of America's fallen military heroes. He has created more than 3,100 original hand-drawn renditions that are provided free-of-charge to the families of all U.S. service members killed in Iraq and Afghanistan. During this time he has invested over 3,500 hours annually and incurred numerous expenses without taking a salary.

"Our organization is incredibly proud to assist such a patriotic and selfless individual like Mr. Reagan. Through his art he has helped improve the spirits of military families who find solace in the beauty of his work and in the dignified compassion he shows in remembrance of their loved ones," said Allen F. Kent, VFW Adjutant General and VFW Foundation Board President.

Reagan is a Vietnam veteran and member of VFW Post 8870 in Edmonds, Wash. He received the VFW's Commander-in-Chief Gold Medal of Merit Award in 2009.
