

VFW Represented in Community Parade

Post supports its community year-round

Oct 02, 2016

Members of VFW Post 10906 in Gladstone, Mo., participated in the 37th Annual Gladfest

Parade on Saturday, Oct. 1.

With 240 members, the Post is well-represented in the community through its work in the schools with the Voice of Democracy and Patriot's Pen essay contests. The Post color guard also presents the colors at the start of area high school football games.

And according to Liles, the honor guard typically performs more funerals in the Greater Kansas City area than any other VFW Post.
