'We must have hope that this agreement will ... help bring closure to thousands of families of missing American servicemen from the Korean War'

Jun 12, 2018

Washington — "We must have hope that this agreement will finally bring peace to the peninsula and help bring closure to thousands of families of missing American servicemen from the Korean War. The VFW salutes President Trump for bringing this issue to the table, and we thank the North Korean leader for agreeing to it. Now the hard work to bring the initiative to fruition begins."

— Keith Harman, National Commander, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States
