

Celebrate VFW Day

The VFW has been unwavering in its devotion to veterans, service members and their families for 121 years

Sep 25, 2020

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Every Sept. 29, Veterans of Foreign Wars Day is celebrated at Posts and in communities around the world.

VFW Day is a day devoted to recognizing our amazing organization and its selfless and committed members worldwide who continue to serve.

The VFW has been unwavering in its devotion to veterans, service members and their families for 121 years. Whether it's fighting for health care, education or disability compensation, "No One Does More For Veterans!"

Show your support by honoring all members, Auxiliary and veterans in your community. Everyone is invited to celebrate the tradition of continuous service and steadfast devotion that defines the VFW on social media using the hashtag #VFWDay.
