

VFW, VA Host Facebook Live Serving Homeless and At-Risk Veterans

Join us on Sept. 23 at 3 p.m. ET to learn what to do during the COVID-19 pandemic

Sep 21, 2020

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Amid the COVID-19 pandemic, the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) are hosting an interactive Facebook Live event to highlight resources available to help veterans facing homelessness to secure safe and stable housing.

Join us on Sept. 23 at 3 p.m. ET to hear from experts on VA programs and services to meet the needs of veterans and their families. The event will feature the following speakers from the Homeless Programs Office:

- John Kuhn, National Director, Supportive Services for Veteran Families National Program Office
- Eileen Devine, National Director, Health Care for Homeless Veterans National Program Office
- Jeffrey Quarles, Director, Grant and Per Diem National Program Office

During the discussion with the VFW's director of communications and public affairs, Terrence Hayes, they will explain how veterans can get the support they need and deserve during the COVID-19 pandemic.

You can participate right before the event by having your questions ready, as we will dedicate time for Q&A. Learn more about the event and be sure to log on at 3 p.m. ET on Sept. 23!
