

VFW's Campaign to Highlight Members Wins International Honor

This award is a testament to our members' lifelong commitment to service

Aug 16, 2022

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – The VFW is pleased to announce its #StillServing campaign has been named the winner of the Gold Stevie® Award in the Communications or PR Campaign of the Year - Non-Profit/Charity category in the 19th Annual International Business Awards® (IBAs).

The International Business Awards are a premier business awards program. The 2022 IBAs received more than 3,700 entries from organizations across 67 nations and territories representing a wide range of categories to include Company of the Year, Marketing Campaign of the Year, Best New Product or Service of the Year, Startup of the Year and Corporate Social Responsibility Program of the Year, among many others.

“I want to thank all those who’ve adopted spirit of the campaign and worked to push it forward,” said VFW National Commander Tim Borland. “#StillServing represents the heart of the VFW and its members, and conveys what today’s VFW truly embodies. Being recognized on an international level lets the world know of America’s veterans lifetime commitment to service.”

The VFW launched the #StillServing campaign in February 2020 to bring attention to and honor the continued commitment and sacrifice of America’s veterans. This awareness campaign showcases how veterans continue a life of service and how their ongoing contributions are positively impacting our society.

Stevie Award winners were determined by the average scores of more than 300 executives
