Veterans Day Deals 2013

Nov 06, 2013

This Veterans Day patriotic businesses across the country are honoring our veterans with discounts.
The list below only includes businesses that contacted the VFW directly regarding their Veterans Day discount.

Applebee's
This Veterans Day, Monday, Nov. 11, Applebee's restaurants will once again offer a FREE meal to veterans and active military to say Thank You to the neighborhood's real heroes. Here are the details:

- All U.S. veterans and active-duty personnel with proof of current or former military service will be treated to a free meal from the Veterans Day menu at all Applebee's in their respective neighborhoods on Veterans Day, Monday, Nov. 11, 2013.
- The Veterans Day menu includes seven delicious dishes to choose from: Fiesta Lime Chicken, Three-Cheese Chicken & Sundried Tomato Penne, Double Crunch Shrimp, 7 oz. House Sirloin, Chicken Tenders Platter, Bacon Cheddar Cheeseburger and the Oriental Chicken Salad.
- Proof of service includes the following: U.S. Uniform Services Identification Card, U.S. Uniform Services Retired Identification Card, Current Leave and Earnings Statement, Veterans Organization Card, photograph in uniform or wearing uniform, DD214, Citation or Commendation.

In addition to offering free meals on Monday, Nov. 11, the online Thank You Movement continues this year to ensure our heroes receive Thank You messages beyond Veterans Day. Applebee's is encouraging guests to leave a message for our veterans and active military at www.thankyoumovement.com. Thank Yous can also be delivered on Facebook and Twitter by using the #thankyoumovement hashtag, and through YouTube. Veterans and active-duty troops can go online anytime to see and hear the heartfelt thanks of the people they serve. Initiated in 2011, the Thank You Movement has generated more than 4.5 million Thank You messages to date and is the largest ongoing military Thank You initiative in the nation.

The National Park Service

The National Park Service will honor all military veterans with special events and free entrance to all 401 national parks for everyone during the Veterans Day weekend, November 9 through 11.

Hallowed places such as Saratoga, Fort McHenry, Vicksburg and the USS Arizona Memorial are among the 94 National Park Service battlefields, military parks, national cemeteries and military-related historic sites that commemorate the service and sacrifice of veterans throughout our country's history. Additional national parks preserve American icons like the Statue of Liberty, Mount Rushmore and the Liberty Bell which have inspired generations of troops.

A full list of all National Park Service events can be found at http:http://www.nps.gov/findapark/event-search.htm

The National Park Service also provides active duty members of the military and their dependents with an annual national park pass, an $80 value, at no charge. Permanently disabled veterans can receive a free lifetime pass to all parks. The passes provides entrance to all national parks, national wildlife refuges, national forests, and many other Federal lands – more than 2,000 in all. The passes can be acquired at any national park that charges an entrance fee. Information about all national park passes is available at www.nps.gov/findapark/passes.htm

Olive Garden

Olive Garden invites veterans to enjoy a free meal from a special menu on Veterans Day. Family members dining with us will get 10% off. Bring your VFW membership card or DD214 and find the Olive Garden in your neighborhood at www.OliveGarden.com.

Plus, current service members and dependents can also receive 10% off throughout the month of November in honor of Military Family Appreciation Month.
