

VFW Aids Oklahoma Tornado Victims

Jun 03, 2013

As violent tornadoes ripped through Oklahoma last month, VFW knew that many of its members and their families would be deeply impacted and need our assistance.

We asked patriotic Americans to join with our VFW Departments, Districts, Posts and members, and donate to VFW's Oklahoma Tornado Relief fund.

Because of the generosity of the VFW community, the VFW has been able to provide speedy relief to those hit hardest by the tornadoes, some of whom lost everything.

The VFW Department of Texas Foundation and the National Ladies Auxiliary Headquarters led the way, each donating $10,000, but support to the VFW extended across the country.

Thank you to all who donated, demonstrating the VFW community's dedication to serving the needs of America's veterans and their families.
