

VFW to Stream Live from Louisville

Jul 09, 2013

The 114th VFW National Convention will stream live this year from Louisville, Ky., beginning with the annual VFW memorial service at 8:30 a.m. (EDT), on Sunday, July 21.

Streaming will pick back up with Monday's Joint Opening Session which will feature special award presentations to the Navy SEALs, General Peter Chiarelli and more. You'll also hear from several guest speakers, including representatives from the Student Veterans of America and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Select streaming of the business sessions and special events will continue for the duration of convention, concluding after the official installation of the newly elected VFW Commander-in-Chief on Wednesday afternoon.

A general agenda can be accessed here.
